

Get Excited!!!

It is countdown time for this year's youth conference. Read some of the excitement going on around the diocese and GET EXCITED!!

North Central

I am greatly anticipating going to the Youth Conference this year! I plan to be there early Saturday morning to see the arrival of all the saints all over the country. The YC is a special time for unity, fun and most important hearing the word! This year seems to be packed with different events for the young people to enjoy. I am always happy to share the love with my fellow brothers and sisters in Christ! God's blessing and safe travels to all! YC Chicago 2011!! Sister Chilwana Thompson – St. Louis, MO activities. I'm mainly eager to hear the word! Morgan Ford – Norfolk, VA

Western States

I look forward to attending the youth conference this year because this is the third year I have been an honorary member of the planning committee. I have been blessed to be finishing up my Masters degree in Counseling and this is my first real vacation from school. I look forward to being with the saints because we are so far away from everyone; it's always a blessing to be together! Sister Elodia Monique Williams – Western States

Florida

I am very very happy! I am excited because its fun and I get to see my friends. I am also looking forward to the activities and seeing Bishop Omega.

Sister Jenifer Kelly – Ft. Pierce, FL

I am excited about attending this year's youth conference because we have the opportunity to fellowship with other young people and saints throughout the diocese and meeting new ones. There are new and exciting activities planned. The Word of God is being taught by BOS and there is unity exhibited throughout the week! Joshua Goddard – Williamston, NC
